NHL HOCKEY - Playoffs

The Second Season is Here!!

The 2011 NHL Playoffs start this week and if the last week is any indication, the next few months are going to be wild. Vancouver is the President's Trophy winner as they finished the season with the most points, however their first round opponent is the team that has knocked them out of the playoffs the last two years. Boston and Montreal renew their rivalry which has spanned decades and gets more and more heated every year. There will be multiple games every night so check the Sports Menu for times and channels.

NASCAR

The Nascar Sprint Cup continues this weekend, with the "Aaron's 499" from Talladega, Alabama. Kyle Busch has won three events already this year so tune in Sunday to see if he can keep up the momentum.

MLB BASEBALL Regular Season Begins

We are a handful of games in and some trends are beginning to form. Texas loves the long ball, youth is paying off in Cleveland (Baltimore, Cincinnati) and the Red Sox are in trouble. This week Toronto has a series with Boston and would be wise to take advantage of their early troubles.

NBA BASKETBALL

Just a reminder that the Score in Canada has "NBA Court Surfing" every Wednesday. They give the viewer live lookins of exciting NBA action throughout the night. Tune in to the Score on Tuesday for 12 games in one.

GOLF

The PGA Tour looks to hold the momentum of last week's epic "Masters" with the "Valero Texas Open". With the first major of the year under the PGA's belt the players will now gear up for the Players Championship in May.
