The 2008 U.S. Open

Roger Federer or Rafael Nadal? That is the primary question going into the 2008 U.S. Open from Flushing Meadows, New York. These two are on a collision course for another epic battle and one can only hope it will come close to the last one.

NFL FOOTBALL - Preseason

The Countdown to the 2008 Regular season has begun and the NFL Network has both live and taped coverage of preseason games nightly. There will be very little complaining in your bar anytime the NFL is on the screen.

MLB BASEBALL'S Stretch Drive

The most intriguing storyline as we head to the end of a long season is can the Tampa Bay Rays hold on to win the very expensive American League East. Their team is made up of a ton of young talent and they may still be a year away but don't tell them that.

The National League is wide open so tune the TV in nightly.
